

Woodward & Lothrop.

New York—Washington—Paris.

During the heated term the store will close at 5 o'clock; Saturdays at 1.

Customers shopping by phone, please call Main 5300, and ask for "Mail Order Department." Orders will be executed with the least possible delay.

Shirt Waist and Jumper Suits.

WE ARE showing a very nice assortment of Shirt Waist and Jumper Suits, in all the desirable materials.

We call special attention to a line of Lawns in plain white and striped effects, which we are offering at reduced prices.

Linen Jumper Suits, in blue and white, with kimono sleeves and full plaited skirt; all sizes.

$8.75 each. Were $12.50.

White Linen Shirt-waist Suits, with hand-embroidered collar and cuffs; full plaited skirt; sizes 36, 38, 40, and 42.

$7.50 each. Were $10.00.

White Lawn One-piece Dresses, "Princess" effect; Dutch neck trimmed with lace and tucks; full plaited skirt, with deep flounce finished with tucks; sizes 36, 38, and 40.

$5.00 each. Were $7.50.

Lawn Jumper Suits, in assorted striped effects; full tucked jumper without sleeves; full plaited skirt finished with tucks; all sizes.

$3.50 each. Were $5.75.

Lawn Jumper Suits trimmed with straps; full cap sleeves; full plaited skirt trimmed with folds; assorted striped effects.

$3.50 each. Were $5.75.

Third floor—G st.

"Homespun"

Bath Towel.

A TOWEL made in Scotland and woven in the old-fashioned way—hence the name. Its superior quality as a bath towel is verified by the hundreds of users during the past twenty years that we have sold it. Size 21x43 inches.

30c each.

By the dozen, $3.50.

Second floor—Eleventh st.

Toilet Articles

For Summer Use.

TOILET ARTICLES covering every possible want and need during the warm weather are here, and the little prices make the buying easy. A good supply before leaving town will save a great deal of annoyance and inconvenience.

W. & L.'s Riviera Violet Extract, bottle, .41.25
Bourjois' Violet Extract, bottle, .75c
Pine's Violet Extract, bottle, .41.25
W. & L.'s Oriental Incense, bottle, .35c
Pine's Face Powder, box, .35c
La Blanche Face Powder, box, .35c
Aminol Toilet Powder, box, .15c
Mennen's Talcum Powder, box, .15c
Calders' Talcum Powder, box, .15c
Paper Powder Books, each, .25c
Listered Tooth Powder, box, .17c
Socodont Tooth Powder, box, .15c
Socodont Tooth Wash, bottle, .15c
Wanous Shampoo Bags, 10c each; 2 for 25c
Bradley's Violet Sea Salt, bottle, .35c & 70c
Bradley's Violet Ammonia, bottle, .25c
411 Sea Salt, bottle, .25c
Physicians and Surgeons' Soap, cake, .5c
Fairy Soap, 5c cake; dozen, .50c
Riviera Castle Soap, cake, .15c
Pond's Extract Soap, cake, .25c
Palm Olive Soap, 10c cake; dozen, .10.00
Hand Sapolio, cake, dozen, .12.50
Borax, box, .25c
Hygienic Perfumed Bath Salt, box, .25c
Atlantic Sea Salt, 10c bag; dozen, .11.00
Electro Silikon, 10c box; dozen, .11.00
Honeycomb Wash Cloths, 5c each; dozen, .50c
Household Ammonia, 1-gallon bottle, .30c
Blanco, for white shoes, box, .25c
Quick White, for white shoes, box, .25c

Main floor—G st.

The "White"

Sewing Machine.

SPECIAL attention is called to the "White" Sewing Machine, which has a well-established reputation for lightness of running, simplicity of construction, and excellence of work.

A few of the advantages of the "White" are:

Automatic tension release.
Tension regulator.
Ball-bearing in hub of wheel and treadle.
Rotary motion, guaranteeing a saving of one-third the time used in sewing on ordinary machines.
Best quality at reasonable price.
Prices are as follows:

White Rotary, $36.00 and $38.00.
White Vibrator, $35.00 and $37.00.

Our demonstrator will be pleased to show the merits of this machine and to give a practical demonstration of its solid worth.

Other popular machines in stock.
Satisfactory arrangements can be made at the department for partial payments.

Second floor—G st.

Woodward & Lothrop.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Gen. and Mrs. Elliott Start for Western Trip.

GRANTS LEAVE FOR NEWPORT

Mrs. and Miss Atkinson are in North Carolina—Miss McMillan, friend of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, to marry Sir John Harrington-Knappe Will Return Home on October 15.

Lieut. Russell Train, who has been stationed at the navy yard all winter, left Washington yesterday to join the flagship of Admiral Evans' fleet, having just been promoted to flag lieutenant. Lieut. Train was among the most popular young men in society last season, and his absence will be greatly regretted.

Mrs. Atkinson and Miss Virginia Atkinson, wife and daughter of Maj. Atkinson, Washington Barracks, have gone to Mountain Meadows Inn, near Asheville, N. C., for the remainder of the season.

Mr. John K. Graves, of this city, is spending some time in Atlantic City.

Mr. Harrison C. Berkeley, of Wheeling, W. Va., is visiting friends in Washington.

Mr. Norborne Robinson will leave Washington shortly for Warrenton, Va., where he expects to spend the month of September.

Representative and Mrs. Van Vechten Olcott, who, since the adjournment of Congress, have been traveling in Mexico, have opened The Breezes, their summer cottage at Tuxedo Park, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse entertained at a dinner at Eski Park, Lenox, Saturday evening, in honor of their guest, Mr. J. Annan Bryce, a brother of the Ambassador from Great Britain. Preceding the dinner Mr. Bryce was taken by his host and hostess on a long automobile ride through the surrounding country.

One more engagement of universal interest is that of Miss Amy McMillan, the daughter of Mrs. James McMillan and the late Senator McMillan, of Michigan, to Sir John Lane Harrington, K. C. V. O., C. B. L. A. British minister to Abyssinia. The announcement was made yesterday by Mrs. McMillan, who with her daughter, is spending the summer at their place, "Eagles Head," Manchester, Mass., where the wedding will take place some time in October. Owing to the family being in mourning the ceremony will be a quiet one, and only a few relatives and intimate friends will be asked.

Miss McMillan is well known in Washington, especially among the most exclusive set, and her friendship with Alice Roosevelt, was almost as intimate as that existing between the President's daughter and Josephine Boardman, now Mrs. Murray Crane. Miss McMillan was a member of the famous Taft party to the Philippines, which was the instigator for so many romances. In winter, Miss McMillan and her mother make their home at 1114 Vermont avenue, where they have one of the most artistic residences in the city.

Miss McMillan and Sir John Harrington met a year ago in Paris. He and Miss McMillan's cousin had done some extensive exploration work in Africa.

Sir John, who has a distinguished career, both in military and diplomatic life, has acquired the rank of lieutenant colonel, and in the consular service, makes his home in Dublin.

Miss McMillan is particularly attractive, talented, and quite a musician. She is tall, slender, and graceful, with a wealth of wavy brown hair.

One of the important events of the season was the dinner given Saturday night by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, at "Crossways," her Newport villa. The affair was in honor of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zahriske Gray, who have just returned from an extensive honeymoon trip. There were eighty guests, and like all functions planned by Mrs. Fish, it was almost regal in brilliancy. The dining-room was made to represent a rose garden. Training vines of the blossoms covered the walls completely. American Beauties of unusual length were used in great profusion. After the dinner there was a cotillion, when other dinner companies joined. The favors were dim inkstands and flower devices.

Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Grant will arrive in Newport to-day, where they will be the guests of Mrs. James P. Kernochan. Gen. Grant will make his annual inspection of the fortifications on Narragansett Bay. A large number of dinners are being arranged by the colony in honor of the Grants.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Knapp, news of whose wedding at the Hotel Manhattan, in New York, was published yesterday, have gone to Spring Lake Beach for their honeymoon. They will return to Washington in October, and after October 15 will be at home in Stonelake Court.

As chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Mr. Knapp is widely known, not only in Washington, but throughout the country. He was appointed to the Interstate Commerce Commission from Syracuse, N. Y., in 1891, by President Harrison, and has since made his home in Washington.

His bride was Mrs. Nellie Maynard Gardner, of Syracuse, daughter of the late George B. Maynard. The wedding ceremony was performed by Bishop Andrews, a life-long friend of Mr. Knapp. News of the wedding came as a surprise to Washington people, as no previous announcement of the engagement had been made.

Miss Perry, the daughter of Chaplain Perry, of Fort Washington, arrived in Washington yesterday for a visit to friends.

Brig. Gen. George P. Elliott, commandant of the Marine Barracks, and Mrs. Elliott left Washington yesterday for an extended trip in the West and North.

Store Closed 5 p.m. Saturdays 1 p.m.

DIAMOND Engagement Rings.

WHEN QUALITY is considered, our prices are always THE LOWEST.

GALT & BRO.,
Established Over a Century,
Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,
1107 Penna. Ave.

LOSES LIFE IN RIVER

John Coleman Drowns While Bathing with Comrades.

BODY NOT YET RECOVERED

Lad Goes Down in Thirty Feet of Water—Companions Make Desperate Efforts at Rescue and Narrowly Avoid Disaster to Themselves. Order of Rechabites Hold Meeting.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone 69.) 323 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 11.—John Coleman, about sixteen years old, a son of John H. Coleman, of 1116 King street, was drowned shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon while bathing with a party of boy friends in a stream known as the Dyke, four miles below Alexandria. Efforts to recover the body had not been successful up to a late hour to-night. The accident occurred at a point where the water is at least thirty feet deep and where the tidal currents of the river form numerous eddies.

Coleman and four other boys—William Hinken, Edward Eward, Elmer McIntosh, and James Cook—went in bathing from a small rowboat near the mouth of the Dyke. Coleman, who was loading on to the stern of the boat, lost his grip on the craft and sank before his companions knew anything of his danger. When he came up he called for help, and young Eward swam to him and attempted to bring him to the boat. But the struggling lad caught his rescuer around the neck and both went under the water.

William Hinken seized at once as the pair came up. Aided by the others, Hinken was able to get both Eward and Coleman to the boat, which, in the meantime, had been capsized. The boys attempted to hold on to the bottom of the boat, but Coleman was so exhausted that he again slipped into the water. Some of his companions attempted to grasp him as he went down, but failed. He did not come to the surface again.

As soon as they could get out of the water, the boys summoned several men to the place, and a vigorous search for the body was begun. Mr. Coleman, the father of the unfortunate lad, arrived on the scene within a short time after the accident. Boats and grappling irons were procured and the stream was carefully dragged for the body.

Rehabites at Accotink. At a public meeting in the Methodist church at Accotink, Fairfax County, this afternoon plans were perfected for the organization of a tent of Rechabites at that place. The gathering was attended by a party of members of the order from this city and Washington. It was originally intended to form the local branch to-day, but owing to the lateness of the arrival of the party from this city the organization was deferred. The project, however, was discussed at length with the leaders of the movement at Accotink, and the visitors were assured that a large number of persons will join the new tent. When the organization is effected the Alexandria Rechabites will take part in the exercises.

F. H. Grillbortzer Dead. Franklin H. Grillbortzer died to-day after a lingering illness at the home of his father, Jacob B. Grillbortzer, 715 South Patrick street. Death was due to pulmonary consumption. The deceased was twenty-one years old, and was unmarried. He was associated with his father in business as a florist. The arrangements for the funeral will be made later.

In the absence of Rev. G. I. Humphreys, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, the services at the church this morning were conducted by Rev. Samuel P. Stokely. In the evening the sermon was delivered by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church.

The "dog wagon" will appear on the streets to-morrow in the enforcement of the city ordinance against allowing dogs which are not provided with muzzles to roam at large about the city.

Rev. C. K. Hobbs, of Portsmouth, Va., preached this morning at the Baptist Church at Woodland, Fairfax County, and this evening he delivered a sermon at the Baptist Church in Del Ray. Mr. Hobbs was invited here to make a view of becoming pastor of several Baptist churches near this city.

Mrs. Sallie A. Crown will leave Washington the 17th, to visit her daughter Louise, who is now at Sacred Heart Academy, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. J. W. Howdeshell has returned from a visit to her husband's relatives in Fauquier, Va.

Mrs. Aylor, of Madison, is visiting her brother, Mr. W. N. Keyser, in this city.

Mrs. Edwin L. Brice and daughter, Miss Rosetta D. Brice, of the Dupont, have returned to the city from a tour going to New York and from there to Saratoga.

METHOD OF CASTILLAN.

How a Guatemalan Journal Attacks Political Foes.

The student of comparative politics may find a most interesting example of the Castilian method of uncivil assault through the medium of journalism in an article of recent date, published in a journal at Guatemala, devoted to politics, science, literature, and the fine arts. This periodical is a crowdy of a character corresponding to that of the higher class weeklies printed in the United States. The article in question is apparently devoted to scientific discussion of the psychological distinction between egoism and egotism. Through column after column of the purest Spanish it cites authorities in the medical literature of England, France, and Germany to prove that the egoist, while a degenerate, is relatively harmless, being able to maintain his position in society and perform the ordinary duties of life, even though his existence may be morbid and unhappy. The egoist, however, is a creature of different caliber. He knows no altruism. He is filled only with himself. To him all the world is "I."

The reader of this article, while fascinated by its clarity, may wonder at its purpose. But suddenly this limp stream of purest Castilian turns a corner and plunges into a turbulent rapid. The purpose is at last revealed. The rapier whines, glittering and naked, withdrawn from its sheath. Here is the quotation which illustrates the end to be attained:

"If the egoist is an aristocrat, or in a position of authority, he commits crimes appropriate to his station. He consecrates fortunes; he is a traitor to his friends; he is a creature of a lower order. He is a conqueror by butchery, such as Charles the Bad, Gilles de Retz, Blue Beard, Caesar Borgia, or Jose Santos Zelaya."

It must be explained to the casual reader that Mr. Zelaya is the present ruler of Nicaragua, and that this essay upon morbid mentality is merely an effort to notify him that Guatemala protests his programme of force in Central America.

If you have any furnished rooms to rent, a want ad. in The Herald will bring you a good tenant.

LOSES LIFE IN RIVER

John Coleman Drowns While Bathing with Comrades.

Bathing with Comrades.

BODY NOT YET RECOVERED

Lad Goes Down in Thirty Feet of Water—Companions Make Desperate Efforts at Rescue and Narrowly Avoid Disaster to Themselves. Order of Rechabites Hold Meeting.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone 69.) 323 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 11.—John Coleman, about sixteen years old, a son of John H. Coleman, of 1116 King street, was drowned shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon while bathing with a party of boy friends in a stream known as the Dyke, four miles below Alexandria. Efforts to recover the body had not been successful up to a late hour to-night. The accident occurred at a point where the water is at least thirty feet deep and where the tidal currents of the river form numerous eddies.

Coleman and four other boys—William Hinken, Edward Eward, Elmer McIntosh, and James Cook—went in bathing from a small rowboat near the mouth of the Dyke. Coleman, who was loading on to the stern of the boat, lost his grip on the craft and sank before his companions knew anything of his danger. When he came up he called for help, and young Eward swam to him and attempted to bring him to the boat. But the struggling lad caught his rescuer around the neck and both went under the water.

William Hinken seized at once as the pair came up. Aided by the others, Hinken was able to get both Eward and Coleman to the boat, which, in the meantime, had been capsized. The boys attempted to hold on to the bottom of the boat, but Coleman was so exhausted that he again slipped into the water. Some of his companions attempted to grasp him as he went down, but failed. He did not come to the surface again.

As soon as they could get out of the water, the boys summoned several men to the place, and a vigorous search for the body was begun. Mr. Coleman, the father of the unfortunate lad, arrived on the scene within a short time after the accident. Boats and grappling irons were procured and the stream was carefully dragged for the body.

Rehabites at Accotink. At a public meeting in the Methodist church at Accotink, Fairfax County, this afternoon plans were perfected for the organization of a tent of Rechabites at that place. The gathering was attended by a party of members of the order from this city and Washington. It was originally intended to form the local branch to-day, but owing to the lateness of the arrival of the party from this city the organization was deferred. The project, however, was discussed at length with the leaders of the movement at Accotink, and the visitors were assured that a large number of persons will join the new tent. When the organization is effected the Alexandria Rechabites will take part in the exercises.

F. H. Grillbortzer Dead. Franklin H. Grillbortzer died to-day after a lingering illness at the home of his father, Jacob B. Grillbortzer, 715 South Patrick street. Death was due to pulmonary consumption. The deceased was twenty-one years old, and was unmarried. He was associated with his father in business as a florist. The arrangements for the funeral will be made later.

In the absence of Rev. G. I. Humphreys, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, the services at the church this morning were conducted by Rev. Samuel P. Stokely. In the evening the sermon was delivered by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church.

The "dog wagon" will appear on the streets to-morrow in the enforcement of the city ordinance against allowing dogs which are not provided with muzzles to roam at large about the city.

Rev. C. K. Hobbs, of Portsmouth, Va., preached this morning at the Baptist Church at Woodland, Fairfax County, and this evening he delivered a sermon at the Baptist Church in Del Ray. Mr. Hobbs was invited here to make a view of becoming pastor of several Baptist churches near this city.

Mrs. Sallie A. Crown will leave Washington the 17th, to visit her daughter Louise, who is now at Sacred Heart Academy, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. J. W. Howdeshell has returned from a visit to her husband's relatives in Fauquier, Va.

Mrs. Aylor, of Madison, is visiting her brother, Mr. W. N. Keyser, in this city.

Mrs. Edwin L. Brice and daughter, Miss Rosetta D. Brice, of the Dupont, have returned to the city from a tour going to New York and from there to Saratoga.

METHOD OF CASTILLAN.

How a Guatemalan Journal Attacks Political Foes.

The student of comparative politics may find a most interesting example of the Castilian method of uncivil assault through the medium of journalism in an article of recent date, published in a journal at Guatemala, devoted to politics, science, literature, and the fine arts. This periodical is a crowdy of a character corresponding to that of the higher class weeklies printed in the United States. The article in question is apparently devoted to scientific discussion of the psychological distinction between egoism and egotism. Through column after column of the purest Spanish it cites authorities in the medical literature of England, France, and Germany to prove that the egoist, while a degenerate, is relatively harmless, being able to maintain his position in society and perform the ordinary duties of life, even though his existence may be morbid and unhappy. The egoist, however, is a creature of different caliber. He knows no altruism. He is filled only with himself. To him all the world is "I."

The reader of this article, while fascinated by its clarity, may wonder at its purpose. But suddenly this limp stream of purest Castilian turns a corner and plunges into a turbulent rapid. The purpose is at last revealed. The rapier whines, glittering and naked, withdrawn from its sheath. Here is the quotation which illustrates the end to be attained:

"If the egoist is an aristocrat, or in a position of authority, he commits crimes appropriate to his station. He consecrates fortunes; he is a traitor to his friends; he is a creature of a lower order. He is a conqueror by butchery, such as Charles the Bad, Gilles de Retz, Blue Beard, Caesar Borgia, or Jose Santos Zelaya."

It must be explained to the casual reader that Mr. Zelaya is the present ruler of Nicaragua, and that this essay upon morbid mentality is merely an effort to notify him that Guatemala protests his programme of force in Central America.

If you have any furnished rooms to rent, a want ad. in The Herald will bring you a good tenant.

CREDIT FOR ALL WASHINGTON

FURNITURE AND CARPETS

At REDUCED PRICES.

All sorts of big bargains can be obtained at our August Clearance Sale. Every department is affected and prices have been cut right and left.

CREDIT.

Even at the sale prices, we invite you to open an account and pay the bills in small weekly or monthly amounts.

Peter Grogan,

817-819-821-823 Seventh St.

Ret. H and I (Eye) St.

THREE GOVERNORS AT FAIR.

Executives of Virginia, Massachusetts, and North Carolina to Meet.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 11.—Gov. and Mrs. Swanson will leave to-morrow afternoon for the Jamestown Exposition, where they will be confronted by a week of hard work as the official host and hostess of the State.

Thursday will be North Carolina Day at the exposition, which event will hold the governor over from the Massachusetts celebration to-morrow. It was at first intended that Gov. Guild, of Massachusetts, would come to Richmond on his way to the exposition, but this plan was changed, and he will make the trip by water.

The governor of Virginia will give a joint reception to the two visiting executives at the Virginia Building after the arrival of Gov. Glenn.

CRIME WAVE IN RICHMOND.

Epidemic of Burglaries Sweeping Over Virginia Capital.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 11.—The epidemic of burglaries in Richmond is increasing to an alarming degree. The city is seemingly overrun with second-story men. Thousands of dollars' worth of jewelry and household valuables have been stolen within the past several weeks. People returning from a vacation are reporting their houses having been entered in their absence.

It is believed that the recent closing of the dives and dens at Pine Beach and the placing of that resort under adequate police protection has had the effect of driving the crooks which infested that place to Richmond, where they are reaping a rich harvest from their operations.

FOUR DIE IN LAUNCH

Accident Causes Little Craft to Sink at Red Bank.

Accident Causes Little Craft to Sink at Red Bank.

HOLE IS STOVE IN BOTTOM

Party of Eleven Men from Newark Out for Day's Fishing When Pump Is Hit by Engine Crank and Vessel Sinks—In Excitement Which Follows Each Tries to Save Himself.

Red Bank, N. J., Aug. 11.—A fishing party of eleven men were out in Raritan Bay, opposite Port Monmouth, this afternoon, when an accident occurred by which four of them lost their lives.

The victims were Charles Guenther, captain of the naphtha launch Savoy; Gustave Moser, Charles Weber, and a man named Schriver.

The others in the party were August Freund, alderman of the Tenth ward; John Gerten, Joseph Vober, Anton Kreiter, Anton Brex, Mr. Moser's son, aged fourteen, and a man named Harvanjon.

It was about 3 p.m. when Capt. Guenther turned the launch around and headed for home. A leak in the boat had allowed some water to enter and the captain got out the pump.

The false covering in the flooring was close to the flywheel of the engine, and while the wheel was revolving the crank struck the pump with sufficient force to drive the lower end of it through the bottom. Water poured into the boat in such volume that the craft began to sink.

Some of the cooler men removed clothing and attempted to stuff it into the hole, but their work was vain.

While the craft was sinking, life preservers were quickly adjusted by some, while others jumped overboard and began to swim away. In the excitement the men paid no attention to each other.

WOMAN CAPTAIN TO RETIRE.

Spends Sixteen Years as Master of Ohio River Boat.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 11.—Capt. Mary B. Greene, wife of Capt. Gordon C. Greene, alderman of the Greene line of steamboats, will soon quit the river, after an experience of sixteen years, during which time she has been one of the most popular and efficient steamboat captains who ever commanded a vessel on the Ohio.

Mrs. Greene has been captain of the Greenleaf, in the Pomeroy and Charleston trade, and under her command that boat has enjoyed a phenomenal patronage.

OYSTER PIRATES CAPTURED. Last of Summer Marauders Believed to Have Been Arrested.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Irrington, Va., Aug. 11.—Two "summer-night" workers were recently arrested in the James River by the oyster police. Their cases will come up Monday at Newport News, and they will probably be given the limit. This about clears the James of summer "pirates."

Seventeen clambers were arrested in the York River recently by oyster inspectors, and convicted in the magistrate's court of taking oysters from the rocks while clamming. The cases were appealed. They will be pushed in the higher court, as it is the oyster officials' earnest desire to break up summer oystering under the pretense of clamming.

VALUABLE CATTLE POISONED